It is reported that Omaha has given up its project of furnishing transportation for the First Ne braska regiment from San Francisco to Omaha.

The middle-of the-road pops of Custer county will find themselves tied up with the democrats again this year. The leaders have so decreed, and they must submit.

It is a noticeable fact that a majority of the delegates selected by the pop county convention for the state convention, were democrats. Anti-fusionists were left at home.

From reports, harmony in political ranks, in Custer township, between the "Dutch" and "Irish," does not prevail to any great extent, but the Irish still claim to have the best of the squabble.

In compliance with an action of the county central committee, a delegate convention of the capabilities of the convention of t this fall,

"Why should not the populist party be able to hold its state convention without the consent of some other party?' asked Hon, W. J. Toylor, in his speech before the county convention Monday. The answer is easy. The leaders of the populist party in Nebraska are democrats, and the party is now run in conformity with the wishes of the democratic party.

A senatorial boom has alread; been launched by Assistant Soretary of War Meiklejohn, who admits coveting the shoes now worn by John M. Thurston. Many political sins are forgotten in the course of two long years, but it is scarcely probable that all of Mr. leiklejohn's unsavory appoint tests, or his unwarranted interference with the late senatorial contest in the interest of one D. E Thompson, will be lost to sight before another legislature meets. -St. Paul Kepublican.

houest pops who joined with the party expecting reform. It is a wonder that any intelligent man the has respect for himself, continues to endorse such brazen bypoerisy. While it has been proven beyond any question of doubt that the whole lot of state officials and deputies, with possibly one or two xceptions, did receive and ride on railroad passes, not only one pass, but in some instances some had a lozen or more different passes, there has not been one of those men personally condemned, or a word of censure uttered against them. An attempt to cover up deception of public servants, may be the pops' conception of good politics, but in our mind it is dishonest, and deception. No good man can accept a nomination from a party practicing such gross deception without compromising himself with wrong, and for that reason, if for no other, he should be defeated at the polls. If the members of the convention were honest in their profession that pass is a bribe, as was said by Representative Taylor, which statement was cheered by the convention, and further that a populist officer who accepts a pass is a traitor to his party, and should be classed with Benedict Arnold, with what consistency did they elect men who use passes to state, judicirl and congressional conventions? When epublican state officers were found short in their accounts, and it was evident they had violated the confidence reposed in them, the republican county and state conventions passed resolutions censuring their action, and demanded an investigation and prosecution. Every republican paper in the state was outspoken in their condemnation. But the pop officials, after proven guilty of betraying the principles of their party, as well as the confidence of the public, baye their acts condoned by the very ones they have defamed. Not a single convention condemns, nor a demo-pop newspaper dare criticise. In Custer county, where a pop sheriff rides on a pass, not a word is said in condemnation.
